

Introduction.....	1
What This Book Is About.	1
Acknowledgements.....	1
And Finally, A Disclaimer.....	2
Chapter 1 Access To Meetings	3
In This Chapter	3
Part I: Overview.....	3
A. Introduction.....	3
B. Overview Of The Law.....	4
Part II: Local Government—The Ralph M. Brown Act	5
A. Introduction.....	5
B. What Are My Rights Under The Brown Act?.....	6
1. Right to Attend Most Meetings.....	6
2. Right to Notice of Meetings.....	6
3. Right to an Agenda.	6
4. Right to Have No Action Taken on Matters Not on the Agenda.....	7
5. Right to Materials Provided to the Members of the Legislative Body.	7
6. Right to Disclosure of Action Taken and Documents Approved in Closed Session.	7
7. Right Not to Sign In.....	7
8. Right to Speak.....	7
9. Right to Insist on Public Vote.....	8
10. Right to Record, Videotape or Broadcast Meetings.	8
11. Right to View and Copy Recordings of Meetings.....	8
12. Right to Request Greater Access.	8
13. Right to Remain in the Meeting.....	9
14. Right to Non-Discriminatory Facilities.	9
15. Right To Seek Relief.....	9
C. How Do I Know If A Meeting Is Governed By The Brown Act?	9
1. Is a “Legislative Body” Involved?.....	9
2. Is the Gathering a “Meeting?”	13
D. What Notice Is Required, And How Is Notice Given?	18
1. Advance Notice Is Required.....	18
2. Agendas Must Include Descriptions of All Items to Be Discussed.....	19
4. Written Notice Must Be Provided Upon Request.....	21
E. When Can A Closed Session Be Held?.....	21
1. “Personnel” Matters: Meetings About Specific Public Employees.	23
2. Labor Negotiations.....	25
3. “Pending Litigation”: Consulting with Attorneys.....	26
4. Real Estate Negotiations: Price and Terms of Payment.	28
5. Other Exceptions to the Open Meeting Requirement.	28
6. Additional Rules for Holding Closed Sessions.....	31
F. What Information Has To Be Disclosed About Closed Sessions?	32
1. Real Estate Transactions.....	32
2. Litigation and Settlement.....	32

3. Public Employee Employment Status.....	33
4. Labor Negotiations.....	34
G. How Is The Brown Act Enforced?	34
1. Any California Citizen Can Enforce the Brown Act.....	34
2. Nullifying Actions Taken in Violation of the Brown Act.....	34
2. Preventing Future Violations of the Brown Act.....	35
3. Disclosure of Closed Sessions Discussions by Participants.....	36
4. Criminal Enforcement of the Brown Act by the District Attorney.	37
5. Attorneys’ Fees And Costs.....	37
Part III: State Government—The Bagley-Keene Act.....	37
A. Introduction To The Bagley-Keene Act.....	37
B. What Are My Rights Under The Bagley-Keene Act?.....	38
1. Right to Attend Most Meetings of State Boards and Commissions That Do Their Business at Meetings.	38
2. Right to Notice of Meetings.....	38
3. Right to a Meaningful Agenda.....	39
4. Right to Have No Action Taken on Matters Not on the Agenda.	39
5. Right to Materials Provided to the Members of the State Body.	39
6. Right to Disclosure of Action Taken in Closed Session.....	39
7. Right Not to Sign In.....	39
8. Right to Speak.....	40
9. Right to Record, Videotape or Broadcast Meetings.....	40
10. Right to Remain in the Meeting.....	40
11. Right to Non-Discriminatory Facilities.....	40
C. What Meetings Are Subject To The Bagley-Keene Act?.....	40
D. When Can A Closed Session Be Held?.....	41
E. How Is The Bagley-Keene Act Enforced?.....	42
Part IV: Other State Open Meeting Laws	44
A. The State Legislature.....	44
1. General Open Meeting Requirement.....	44
2. Notice Required For Open Sessions And Some Closed Sessions.....	44
3. Permissible Closed Sessions.....	44
4. Enforcement.....	45
B. The Board Of Regents Of The University Of California.....	45
C. Student Auxiliary Organizations.....	46
1. California State University.....	46
2. University Of California.....	47
3. Community Colleges.....	47
Part V: Federal Government Meetings.....	47
A. The “Government In The Sunshine Act.”	47
B. Federal Advisory Committee Act.....	48
Part VI: Private Organizations And Associations	49
Chapter 2 Access To Public Records	51
In This Chapter.....	51
Part I: Overview Of The Law.....	51
Part II: The California Public Records Act	52

A. How Does The California Public Records Act Work?	52
B. What Agencies Are Governed By The Act?	53
1. State Agencies.....	53
2. Local Agencies.....	53
3. Other Agencies: Proposition 59.....	53
C. What Are Public Records?	54
1. Writing.....	54
2. Containing information relating to the conduct of the public’s business. 54
3. Prepared, owned, used or retained by state or local agency.	55
4. Regardless of physical form or characteristics.	55
D. How Do I Get Access To Records?	55
1. Making a Request	55
2. Inspection.....	56
3. Copying.....	57
4. Cost of Copies.....	57
5. Records Containing both Exempt and Non-exempt Information	58
6. Assistance in Obtaining Records	58
E. What Records Are Exempt From Disclosure?	59
1. Introduction.....	59
2. How the Exemptions Work.....	59
3. General Exemptions.....	60
4. Specific Exemptions.	71
F. What Can I Do If The Agency Doesn’t Provide Public Records I Have Requested?.....	76
G. Summary Of Rights	78
Part III: Proposition 59.....	78
Part IV: Legislative Open Records Act	79
A. What Records Of The Legislature Are Covered?	79
B. How Do I Get Access To Legislative Records?.....	79
C. What Legislative Records Are Exempt From Disclosure?	80
D. What Can I Do If The Legislature Does Not Provide Records That Are Subject To Disclosure?	81
E. Does The Legislature Make Information Available On The Internet?.....	81
Part V: The Federal Freedom Of Information Act.....	81
A. Introduction.....	81
B. How Does The Freedom Of Information Act Work?	82
1. What Agencies Are Subject to the FOIA?.....	82
2. What Information Is Covered by the FOIA?	82
3. How Do I Get Information Under the FOIA?.....	83
4. Can the Government Charge Me for Providing Information?	85
5. What Can I Do If the Government Won’t Provide the Information I Request?.....	85
1. Exemption 1: National Security and Foreign Policy Classified Data....	86
2. Exemption 2: Internal Personnel Policies.....	86
3. Exemption 3: Data Exempt From Disclosure Under Other Statutes.	87

4. Exemption 4: Confidential Proprietary Data.....	87
5. Exemption 5: Non-Discoverable Internal Government Communications. 87
6. Exemption 6: Private Personal Data.....	87
7. Exemption 7: Investigatory/Law Enforcement Records.....	87
8. Exemption 8: Financial Regulation Records.....	87
9. Exemption 9: Geological and Geophysical Data.....	88
D. What Exemptions Does The Government Most Often Assert?	88
1. Privacy.....	88
2. Proprietary Commercial Information.....	88
3. Deliberative Process Privilege.....	89
Chapter 3 Proposition 59: A Constitutional Right Of Access.....	91
In This Chapter.....	91
Part I: Introduction	91
Part II: Main Provisions Of The Sunshine Amendment.....	91
A. A Constitutional Right Of Access.....	91
B. Rules For The Interpretation And Application Of Statutes, Rules And “Other Authority” Regulating Public Access.....	92
C. Other Effects Of The Sunshine Amendment.....	92
Part III: Impact Of The Sunshine Amendment.....	93
Part IV: Conclusion.....	95
Chapter 4 Government Treatment Of The Media: Discrimination And Accreditation	96
In This Chapter.....	96
Part I: Introduction	96
Part II: Discrimination Among News Outlets Or Reporters	97
A. Right Of Equal Access.....	97
B. Right Of Equal Convenience.....	98
C. Right Of Public Employees To Speak.....	98
1. Public Employees.....	99
2. Elected Officials.....	100
Part II: Media Accreditation.....	101
1. Constitutional Requirements.....	102
2. Legitimate Reasons For Government Denials Of Press Access Or Credentials.....	102
B. Press Passes Issued By Private Entities.....	103
1. State Actors.....	103
2. Special Issues for Web-Based Media.....	104
3. Other Restrictions Contained in Credentials.....	104
Chapter 5 Public Access To Criminal Court Proceedings	106
In This Chapter.....	106
Part I: Introduction	106
A. Background On Constitutional Rights Of Access.....	107
B. Importance Of Public Participation.....	107
Part II: Defining The Constitutional Standard	108
A. Legal Test For Closure Of Court Proceedings.....	108
B. Procedures Courts Must Follow Before Closing Proceedings.....	109

1. Notice to the Public.....	109
2. Burden on the Party Seeking Closure.....	109
3. Any Order Closing Proceedings Must Be Narrowly Tailored.....	109
4. Court Must Make Findings on the Record.....	110
5. Showing of Substantial Probability of Harm.....	110
Part III: Closure Rationales: The First And The Sixth Amendments	110
Part IV: Public Access To Bench Proceedings	111
Part V: Juvenile Court Proceedings/Limited Right Of Access	111
A. Public’s Right Of Access To Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings (Serious Crimes).....	112
1. Statutory Offenses.....	112
2. Sex Crimes Exception.....	112
3. Fitness And Competency Hearings.....	112
B. Access At Request Of The Minor, Parent Or Guardian.....	113
C. Discretionary Public Access.....	113
D. Limitations On The Right Of Access To Juvenile Cases.....	113
E. Alternative Arguments For Media Access.	114
1. Purpose of Closure Has Been Removed.	114
2. No Right To Jury Trial.....	114
F. Post-Hearing Information.	114
G. Obtaining Information About Juveniles Convicted Of Serious Crimes. ...	114
H. Right To Publicize A Juvenile’s Name.....	115
I. Public Access To Juvenile Dependency Proceedings.	115
Part VI: Access To Military Proceedings	116
Part VII: How To Protect Your Right To Access Court Proceedings	116
A. Anticipate Closure Motions.	116
B. Request A Hearing.	117
C. Seek Support From The Non-Moving Party.	117
Chapter 6 Gag Orders And Prior Restraints	118
In This Chapter	118
Part I: Gag Orders—Limiting Discussion And Coverage Of Court Cases.....	118
A. Gag Orders In Criminal Cases.	118
B. Constitutional Requirements.....	119
1. Interpretive Cases And Examples.....	119
C. Alternatives To Gag Orders.	120
D. Responding To A Proposed Gag Order.	121
E. Some Information Generally Releasable.....	121
F. To Whom The Orders Apply.....	122
G. Rules Affecting Attorneys.	122
H. Gag Orders In Civil Cases.	122
Part 3: Prior Restraints	123
A. Introduction.....	123
B. General Rule Of Law.	123
C. The Criminal Defendant’s Right To A Fair Trial.	124
1. The Right To A Fair Trial Generally Does Not Justify A Prior Restraint.

2. Interpretive Cases And Examples.....	125
D. The Right To Privacy And Reputation.....	126
E. Trade Secrets.....	126
F. National Security.....	126
G. Statutes Limiting The Right To Disclose Information.....	127
H. Responding To A Restraining Order.....	127
1. California Law.....	127
2. Federal Courts.....	127
3. Transparently Invalid Orders.....	128
Chapter 7 Public Access To Civil Court Proceedings.....	129
In This Chapter.....	129
Part I: Introduction.....	129
Part II: Right Of Access.....	130
A. The First Amendment Standard.....	130
B. The California Standard.....	130
Part III: Access To Particular Kinds Of Proceedings.....	131
A. Domestic Or Family Proceedings.....	131
B. Mental Health Hearings.....	131
C. Trade Secrets.....	131
D. Privacy.....	132
E. Settlement Proceedings.....	133
F. Depositions.....	133
G. Bench And Chamber Conferences.....	133
H. Opposing Closure Of Civil Court Proceedings.....	134
Part IV: Access To Private Proceedings.....	134
Part V: Camera Access To Court Proceedings.....	135
Chapter 8 Access To Jurors And Jury Information.....	138
In This Chapter.....	138
Part I: Access To Jury Selection.....	138
A. Cases Where Closure Was Held Unconstitutional.....	139
B. Cases Where Closure Was Held Constitutional.....	140
Part II: Access To Juror Questionnaires.....	141
Part II: Access To Transcripts Of Jury Selection.....	141
Part IV: Access To Juror Names And Anonymous Juries.....	142
A. California Law.....	142
B. Federal Law.....	143
C. Interpretive Cases.....	144
Part V: Access To Jurors During Trial.....	145
Part VI: Photographing And Sketching Jurors During Trial.....	145
Part VII: Access To Jurors After Trial.....	146
A. California Law.....	146
B. Interpretive Cases.....	147
Part Viii: Access To Grand Juries.....	147
A. Access To Grand Jurors.....	148
B. Access To Grand Jury Witnesses.....	148
C. California's Limited Right To Public Session Of The Grand Jury.....	149

Chapter 9 The California Shield Law And The Reporter’s Privilege.....	150
In This Chapter	150
Part I: Introduction—Legal Protection For Journalists And Others Who Gather And Publish Information	150
Part II: The California Shield Law.....	151
A. Persons Protected By The Shield Law.....	152
1. Who is Protected?	152
2. Was the Information Obtained While Gathering Information “For Communication to the Public”?.....	153
3. Is the Information Unpublished or Confidential?	153
B. The Extent Of The Shield Law’s Protections.....	154
1. Civil Cases: Absolute Immunity.....	154
2. Criminal Cases: Qualified Immunity.....	155
3. Immunity from Contempt, Not Privilege.....	156
C. Procedural Aspects Of Subpoenas.....	157
1. No Waiver.....	157
2. Five Days Notice.....	158
3. Judicial Findings Supporting Judgment of Contempt.....	158
4. Appeal and Stay.....	158
Part III: Protection Under Federal Law: The Reporter’s Privilege.....	158
A. The Limited First Amendment Privilege.....	159
1. Grand Jury Subpoenas.....	159
2. Criminal Cases.....	161
3. Civil Litigation.....	162
4. Personal Observations of Journalists.....	163
B. Who Can Invoke The Reporter’s Privilege?	164
C. Enforcing Gag Orders In Federal Court.....	164
D. Federal Regulations On Subpoenas To Journalists.....	165
E. Federal Legislation To Create A Reporter’s Shield Law.....	165
Part IV: Protection From Search Warrants	165
A. Limited Constitutional Protection.....	165
B. Protections From Search Warrants Under California Law.....	166
C. Protections Under Federal Statute.....	167
1. Work Product Materials.....	167
2. Documentary Materials.....	167
Chapter 10 Access To Judicial Records.....	168
In This Chapter	168
Part I: General Rules Of Access	168
A. Basic Of Right Of Access.....	168
B. Procedure For Access To Court Records.....	168
Part II: Records Of Criminal Proceedings	170
A. Records Subject To First Amendment Right Of Access.....	170
B. Access To Evidence In Criminal Cases.....	171
1. Limiting Access When Evidence Is Introduced.....	171
2. Materials That Do Not Become Evidence In The Case.....	171
3. Audiotaped And Videotaped Evidence.....	172

C. Access To Grand Jury Transcripts And Materials.....	172
1. Access After Indictment.....	172
2. Access If No Indictment.....	172
3. Access to Civil “Watchdog” Grand Jury Materials.....	173
4. Federal Grand Juries.....	173
D. Access To Juror Records.....	173
Part III: Civil Case Records	174
A. Discovery Material In Civil Cases.	175
1. Limited Right of Access to Discovery Materials Not Filed in the Action.	175
2. Qualified Right of Access to Discovery Filed and Relied Upon by Court.	175
3. Courts May Issue Protective Orders Upon Showing of “Good Cause.”	175
4. Access to Discovery After Trial.....	176
B. SETTLEMENT RECORDS.....	177
1. Agreements Between Private Litigants.	177
2. Settlement Agreements To Which One Party Is A Governmental Entity.	178
Part IV: Statutory Confidentiality	178
A. Juvenile Court Documents.	178
B. Search And Arrest Warrant Documents.....	179
C. Probation Officers’ Reports.....	180
1. Mandatory Disclosure.....	180
2. Discretionary Disclosure.....	180
B. Pre-Sentencing Diagnostic Reports.....	181
C. Adoption Records.....	181
D. Victim Statements.....	181
E. Indigent Defense Funding.....	182
F. Wiretap Records.....	182
G. Criminal History Information.....	182
H. Copies Of Court And Deposition Transcripts.....	182
I. Electronic Court Records.....	183
Part V: Records Of Court Administration.....	183
Chapter 11 Access To Public And Private Areas And To Government Officials ...	184
In This Chapter.....	184
Part I: Introduction	184
Part II: Access To Disaster Sites, Crime Scenes And Military Areas.....	185
A. Disaster Scenes.....	185
B. Crime And Tactical Operations Scenes.....	185
C. Military Areas.....	186
1. Military Accident Scenes and “National Defense Areas.”.....	186
2. Combat Troops.....	186
3. Photography.....	186
Part III: Public School Grounds	187

A. There Is No General Right Of Access To Public Schools Under The First Amendment.....	187
B. California Law Governing Access To Public Schools.....	188
1. Reporters are not required to register before entering public schools. .	188
2. Schools may nonetheless try to impose restrictions on media access. .	188
3. Reporters and members of the public may be required to leave public schools if requested to do so.	189
Part IV: State Prisons, Jails And Parole Board Hearings	189
A. General Rules Of Access.	189
B. Access To Executions.	190
Part V: Private Property	191
A. Types Of Trespass.....	191
B. Business Establishments.	192
1. Businesses Generally.	192
2. Shopping Centers and Other Privately Owned Public Places.....	192
C. Private Residences.....	193
D. Landlords And Rented Premises.....	193
Part VI: Access To Government Officials	193
Chapter 12 Legal Perils In Newsgathering	195
In This Chapter	195
Part I: Introduction.....	195
Part II: Confidential Information And Documents	195
Part III: Legal Limits On Newsgathering	197
A. Impersonation.....	197
1. California Laws Criminalize Impersonation.....	197
2. Impersonation as Basis for Fraud or as Factor in Intrusion Analysis. .	198
3. Pretexting.	198
B. Trespass.....	199
1. Civil Trespass.....	199
2. Criminal Trespass.	200
3. Who Can Grant or Deny Permission to Enter?.....	201
4. Shopping Centers and Apartment Complexes.	202
C. Invasion Of Privacy By Intrusion.....	202
1. Expectation of Privacy.	202
2. Offensiveness.....	203
Part IV: Special Considerations For Electronic Newsgathering.....	204
A. Obtaining, Making And Using Audio And Video Recordings.....	205
1. The Anti-Paparazzi Statute	205
2. Recording Confidential Communications Without Consent: Penal Code § 632 206
3. Recording Interviews	208
4. Calls Within California vs. Calls Between California and Another State	208
5. Federal Law: One-Party Consent Rule	209
6. Intercepting Cell and Cordless Phone Calls.....	210
7. Wiretaps	210

B. Using Police And Emergency Scanners.....	210
1. California Law.....	210
2. Federal Law.....	210
C. Accessing Computers And Electronic Data.....	211
1. Computer Access: California Law.....	211
2. Computer Access: Federal Law.....	211
3. GPS Data.....	212
Chapter 13 The Student Press And Student Speech.....	213
In This Chapter.....	213
Part I: Constitutional Background.....	213
A. Non-Curricular Student Speech.....	213
B. School-Sponsored Or Curricular Speech.....	216
C. Vulgar, Lewd And Obscene Speech.....	218
Part II: California Laws Regarding Student Press And Speech.....	218
A. Student Press And Speech On Public High School Campuses.....	218
1. Protection for Student Journalism at Public Schools.....	218
2. Schools May Censor Certain Material, But Must Justify the Censorship	219
3. Only “Official Publications” Can Be Censored.....	219
4. Disciplinary Action.....	220
B. Student Press And Speech At Public Colleges And Universities.....	220
Part III: Underground Student Newspapers And Other Materials.....	221
Part IV: Regulation Of Student Speech By Private Schools.....	222
Part V: Theft Of Student Newspapers.....	223
Appendix A The Brown Act Ca Government Code Sections 54950-54963.....	224
Appendix B The California Public Records Act Ca Government Code Sections 6250-
6270.....	248
Appendix C Sample California Public Records Act Request Letter.....	273
Appendix D Sample Demand For Cure Or Correction; Alleged Violation Of Brown
Act.....	275
Appendix E Sample Freedom Of Information Request Letter.....	276
Appendix F Sample Freedom Of Information Act Appeal Letter.....	277
Name Of Agency Official Originally Addressed, Title.....	277